Liability & Insurance

At Noerr, we combine our years of experience in liability and insurance issues with a proven track record in highly complex litigation, arbitration and negotiations to protect and enforce our clients' interests as efficiently as possible.

Oliver Sieg

Companies are at risk of being confronted with serious challenges in the form of natural catastrophes, accidents or technical failures, not to mention attacks from external and internal sources. New challenges such as diversity, sustainability, protection of human rights, climate neutrality and environmental social governance (ESG) have also emerged in recent years. Successful risk management entails not only establishing an adequate compliance management system and corporate governance but also having appropriate insurance coverage in place.

Our team are among the pioneers in advising businesses, insurance companies and governing bodies on D&O liability, D&O insurance, product liability and liability insurance coverage and, more recently, cyber risks. We have decades of client-oriented and interdisciplinary experience in advising and representing companies as claimants or opposing parties and as policy holders or insurers. We represent companies in and out of court when claims for damages are brought against them, and advise them and act on their behalf when pursuing claims for damages and claiming insurance cover. We are convinced that it is impossible to provide advice on liability or insurance in isolation from one other.

In an event of loss or damage, our aim is safeguard and enforce our client's rights in line with their intended goals in negotiations or court and arbitration proceedings, both in Germany and other countries. The challenges of the digital economy are an additional factor to be considered. Noerr's Cyber Incident Response Team is experienced in providing immediate support and action in difficult and urgent situations such as cyberattacks.

advising and representing clients in disputes with authorities, especially insurance regulatory issues

We do not litigate for the sake of it. Yet when we handle a dispute for a client (whether a major corporation, a medium-sized company or a private individual), we do so with the determination, passion and tenacity that have shaped Noerr's reputation over a number of decades. We aim to achieve the best possible outcome for our clients. In doing so, we act proportionally and take account of all of those aspects which are important to our clients.

Drawing on experience, we know that the outcome of disputes both in and out of court cannot be controlled or predicted with absolute certainty. Nevertheless, in order to offer the best possible predictability, we proactively analyse and draw-up an individual dispute strategy for you and the particular case at hand. We provide you with a clear and open-minded assessment of the opportunities and risk at an early stage.

We react quickly to new developments – be that the reactions of your opponent, the court or the media – enabling us to respond effectively. Out of a number of options, we creatively select the approach which offers the best chance for our client.

We are willing to take risks, but only together with our client, and only if those risks do not jeopardise our client's good reputation.

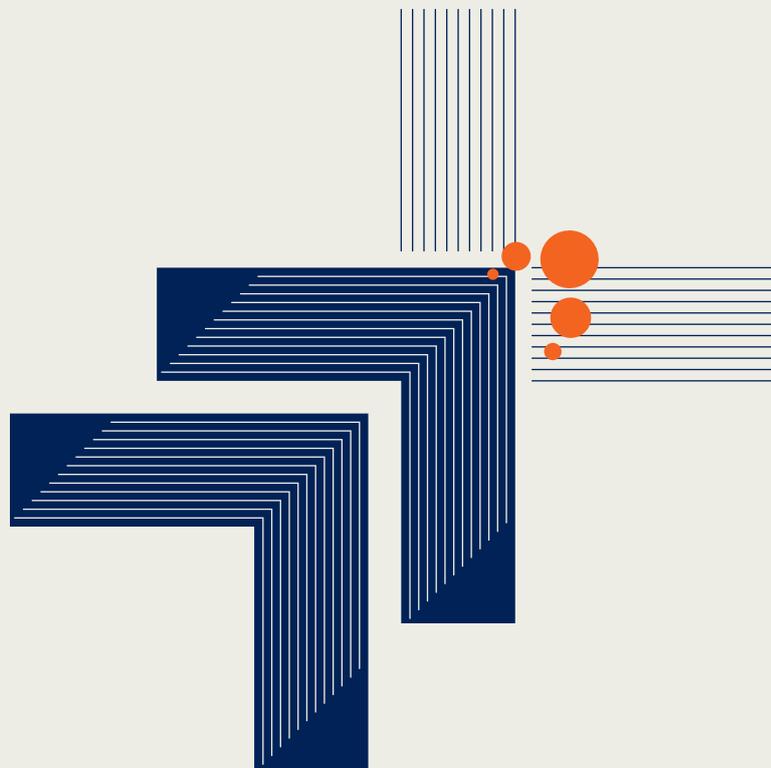

To this end we deploy focused, customised litigation teams comprised of strong and experienced advisors and where appropriate we also consult specialists from our other practice groups such as banking, corporate, employment, insolvency, cartel and criminal law.

Noerr frequently acts as the international lead counsel, coordinating cases across numerous countries and jurisdictions. We understand what matters to you, our clients, in cross-border disputes.

Whenever necessary, we draw on our long-standing connections and memberships, such as the Lex Mundi network, to identify the most suitable local law-firms for your project. This enables us to guarantee truly global legal advice that satisfies the exacting quality standards of Noerr.
